Pentecost II Lectionary Pericope Study
Trinity Lutheran Seminary
Tuesday, August 2, 2007
9:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Presented by
William Doubleday
Professor of Pastoral Theology and Associate Dean
Bexley Hall Episcopal Seminary

Bill is a graduate of Amherst College and completed his M. Div. with Distinction at the Episcopal Divinity School in Cambridge, MA where he was subsequently the Jonathan Daniels Memorial Teaching Fellow. In pastoral theology he specializes in a number of areas including pastoral care and congregational studies, pastoral preaching, interim ministry, hospice care, human sexuality, AIDS ministry, grief and bereavement, and conflict management. An excellent scholar of scripture, preaching and tradition, he is also uniquely qualified to bring a strong pastoral dimension to our preparation for preaching in the second half of Pentecost.
